DEACON’S GREETING

CALL TO WORSHIP – from Psalm 8

One: O Lord, our God, how majestic is your name in all the earth!

All: When I look at your heavens, the works of your fingers

One: What are humans that you are mindful of them, mortals that you care for them!

All: O Lord, our God, how majestic is your name in all the earth.

OPENING CAROL – We Three Kings of Orient Are

UNISON PRAYER OF REFLECTION

[adapted from Calling on God, Bankson & Sokolove, Eds., ©2014, Skylights Paths Publishing, p. 267

God of astonishing grace, the good news of your coming rings out in every direction, lighting up the world with your radiant glory. Like the Magi who greeted the Christ Child in Bethlehem, help us to see the miracles that you set before us, to lift up our eyes to the riches that you spread before us each day and to rejoice in the mystery of your presence flowing among us, around us and through us. Captivate us with your love and overwhelm us with your joy so that we may see ourselves as the holy, living Body of Christ, born in human flesh for the healing of the world. Amen.

A CELEBRATION OF HOLY COMMUNION

Note: Ours is an Open Table meaning that anyone who finds meaning in the sacrament is welcome to partake. Do note that our elements are gluten and alcohol free.

An Affirmation of Faith – [adapted from an entry in Touch Holiness, p. 212]

In faith we acknowledge that God has acted in the past, in a holy history. In faith we confess that God desires to guide our lives today. In faith we affirm that God continues to send prophets and speak through willing vessels to guide the course of all history. In faith we celebrate that as followers of Jesus Christ we are to embody as he did compassion, justice, and love. In faith we long to be part of God’s purpose for our lives and for the world. Amen.

Song of Preparation – Let Us Break Bread Together

#A MOMENT TO BREATHE is an experience of Thich Nhat Hahn's breath of 10 exercise. It is very simple, inviting you to breathe as you normally would but counting each breath in and each breath out until you reach 10. If you lose track of your count at any point, start over. This is a remarkably simple but highly effective breathing exercise that can reset your mind and heart. Enjoy! 😊

TO ANY VISITORS WITH US THIS MORNING, WELCOME! We are so glad you decided to join us! JOHN 1:1-9; 14, 16-18

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. What has come into being in him was life, and the life was the light of all people. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it. There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him. He himself was not the light, but he came to testify to the light. The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world. And the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father's only son, full of grace and truth. From his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace. The law indeed was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. No one has ever seen God. It is God the only Son, who is close to the Father's heart, who has made him known.
